

Joe Buissink Workshop: Portland, Oregon 2007

Alton L Collins Retreat Center

October 22nd to October 25th 2007.

We now have a Pacific Northwest workshop, located across from our home outside of Portland. The site is absolutely beautiful, 67 Acres of lush forest, a heaven for photography, this should be fun!

Also new in this workshop: Full accommodation and 3 meals a day are included in the price. Just fly into Portland and come on over!

Unlock the artist in you!!

Come on board this one of a kind workshop with Joe Buissink. The Wedding photographer to the stars will help you find and unlock your passion and direct it in such a manner that you will 'see and feel' everything differently at a wedding.

Joe's workshops are about who we are when we go to the wedding and what we can do to 'see' more.

Why we do what we do and where we take IT once we tap into our passion.

Joe will talk about various topics such as marketing, album design, studio workflow etc.

On Monday the 22nd: Joe is inviting the students to a meet and greet from 7 pm to 8 pm.

This is good time to introduce each other and get a little background info on everybody (a way of breaking the ice!). Just bring yourself!

On Tuesday the 23rd: Class will start at 10am. Joe will teach in the morning, break for lunch, and then will start shooting in the afternoon. Students will follow him around as he shoots the models, then the students will be encouraged to shoot. The day will end at 5pm.

On Wednesday the 24th: As we begin the class at 10am, Joe will start by going over the student's work from the previous day and do a critique then go on with the teaching. After lunch the students will be sent out on shoots with the models, on location. Joe will go from group to group to guide the students during their shoot. The day will end at 5pm.

On Thursday the 25th: Starting at 10am, Joe will review/critique the work from the previous day, pointing out to students areas in their work which they may want to improve. After lunch, we will go back to our meeting room and discuss various topics such as albums, marketing, Q&A.... The day will end at 5pm.

The above schedule was written to give you all an idea of how the days will unfold. It may change a little depending on the need of the students in terms of information. Either way it will be a wonderful learning, eye and mind opening experience, not to be missed.

The rate for this 3 day workshop is $1900.00 It includes:
